Michigan Flyer Adds Late-Night Bus for Spartan-Wolverines Football Game

For East Lansing passengers headed to the 7:30 p.m. football game between MSU Spartans and the U-M Wolverines on Saturday Oct. 7, Michigan Flyer is offering a special late-night return bus departing at 11:45 p.m. from Ann Arbor's Blake Transit Center (BTC). It's scheduled to arrive in East Lansing at 1 a.m.

The one-way fare for this special bus from the BTC to the East Lansing Marriott is $20. Seating is limited. Tickets are available online at MichiganFlyer.com, and are non-refundable once purchased.

Michigan Flyer offers several options for traveling from East Lansing to Ann Arbor before the game. The one-way fare for each is $15.

Two buses depart the East Lansing Marriott at 10 a.m. and 11:15 a.m., and arrive at the BTC at 11:15 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., respectively. (Michigan Flyer's schedule offers earlier buses, too.)

For passengers planning later pre-game tailgates, three other Michigan Flyer buses leave East Lansing at 12:15 p.m., 2 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Due to detours and game traffic, they bypass the BTC entirely and go instead to the Kensington Court Hotel, arriving at 1:30 p.m., 3:15 p.m., and 4:45 p.m., respectively.

The Ann Arbor Area Transportation Authority (TheRide) offers "FootballRide" shuttles to transport passengers to Michigan Stadium from the Kensington and hotels around Ann Arbor. The one-way fare for shuttle rides is $1.50, roundtrips $3. FootballRide tickets may be purchased at most of the hotel sites, by mail or in person at TheRide's main office: 2700 S. Industrial Hwy., Ann Arbor, MI 48104.
